

CDP/ COMMIS CHEF / COOK

Are you recently qualified or ready to start moving up the ranks of the kitchen? Would you like to work with new exciting ingredients and flavours whilst gaining guided experience? Want that elusive combo of being able to progress your career and still maintain a social life at the same time?

If you are dedicated, enthusiastic, and eager to learn, we want you to become part of the team that continually raises the bar for Mexican cuisine in Australia. Come and enjoy working with a variety of unusual ingredients and dishes, inspired by traditional Latin American origins.

This full-time role is ideal for someone wanting to grow within an energetic environment and friendly team, guided by management who actively cares for their staff. Benefit from ongoing training, enjoy having a voice and opportunities to get involved from stock control to menu development. Being part of a company with plans for expansion already underway means there's plenty of room for personal advancement too.

We are proud and excited to offer:

- Career development and progression
- Internal and external training opportunities
 - Award rates
 - Closed most public holidays
- Immediate start: We are currently hiring CDP, Commis Chefs, and Cooks.

Don't just think about it - apply today by emailing your CV to info@mamasita.com.au. We look forward to getting you on board!
